

FedConnect® New Functionality Highlights

This document highlights the enhanced features you can look forward to using in this release of the FedConnect® product.

New Welcome Page Enhancements

The FedConnect® product has been enhanced with a new Welcome page. The Welcome page has a brand new look and feel, but still functions in the same way that it previously did.

The following screen shot illustrates how the Welcome page might look at your agency or company now, after this enhancement:

The screenshot shows the FedConnect website interface. At the top left, there is a navigation menu with images of business professionals. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Sign in to Your FedConnect Account: A button for logging in.
- Don't have an account? Register now - It's Free!: A link to register for federal contracting opportunities and grants.
- Have questions about how it works, click here to learn more.: A link for user assistance.
- Search Public Opportunities: A search bar and a link to view available opportunities.
- FedConnect Information: A list of links including "For Federal Agencies", "For Vendors", "For Grant Applicants", "Latest FedConnect News", "FedConnect Tutorial", "Participating Agencies", "FedConnect Accessibility Features", and "Contact Us".
- FedConnect Technical Support: A link for technical assistance.
- Premium Level Support Now Available: A yellow starburst graphic with a link to learn more.
- Looking to do business with the US federal government? Are you seeking grants or assistance funding?: A section explaining the portal's value for finding federal contracts and grants.
- FedConnect is free for vendors and applicants!: A section stating there is no charge for using the platform.
- Are you a federal agency?: A section for agencies to learn how to use the platform for electronic communication.

Email Notification Method Enhancements

With this release, vendor administrators have the ability to determine whether the FedConnect® product sends email notifications about opportunities, awards, and other alerts to a central email address for your company (for instance, to a distribution list email address), to the email addresses of individual users at your company, to both, or to neither.

Need more info? See Setting Your Company's Email Notification Method in the online help.

Enhanced Online Help

The FedConnect® product's online help has been updated with brand new content, enhanced usability features, and an updated look and feel.

Need more info? See the FedConnect® Online Help Quick Reference Guide.
